

Hey. welcome to the very second issue of bbn. This isn't really a News newsletter. I don't know why I call it that. Anyway, since you're reading this, I might as well divulge a secret: my underwear is 100 years old.

I review little-known 3ds games. This time: Shifting World. Got a riddle. What's black and white? I mean besides this issue. Shifting World is a black and white game on the 3ds. I have yet to see a color other than black or white yet. Dogs would like this game. This is quite a puzzler. This one is a puzzle-platformer. Pressing B to jump is getting really old here, I wish they would go back to A. anyway, the object of the game is to make your way around rooms to find the door. Fans of Cubic Ninja (or, the Game Boy version of Donkey Kong) should really find this amusing. And if you run into a point where you can't pass, press a shoulder button and the world around you shifts. Black walls become white and white walls become black and obstacles become passable. It's really quite hard to explain, and I haven't even figured out what's going on. But it's good, and definitely worth a try... if you can find it...

And now, a gross riddle.
What's black and white and red all over?

A run-over zebra.

And now, a 5 second song.
Here is the first of what I hope to be many 5 second songs.

Here I was going to write some tips on how to avoid the inevitable elephant attack, but then I realized that everyone must suffer an attack from an elephant once in their lives, so you can't really avoid an elephant attack. Those darn elephants, why must they go around attacking people? I hate it! I hate stupid elephants! Don't pull out an elephant stinger.

Hello. I'm here to talk to you today about liquid nitr

Oh man! I just got attacked by an elephant! What do I do?!

It's puzzle time!

Suppose you're playing Boggle and this comes up. What is the longest word you can make with this arrangement? You can use any letter as many times as you like.

Answer next issue.

Hey kids, the dark knight rises in theaters on Friday. The classic tale of Batman is retold, but instead of a villain defeating him, it will – spoiler alert – be a herd of elephants. Can't miss action.

There once was a gal from Manhattan
That liked to dress all up in satin
When asked if she's smart
She'd let out a fart
And answer the question in Latin.

North leads with a 4 of spades. West counters with a 9 of diamonds. Then South jumped all over the table hooting and hollering like a monkey. East said "What the hell are you doing, you weirdo?" South replied "I am NOT a weirdo, you poopyhead." Then the world ended.
