Answer TO THE puzzle in issue
2: antidisestablishmentarianism

Now that that's out of the way,
let's begin.

Poet-tree.

"I like Ike."

I like ike.

He's better than mike.

He's better than Spike.

He don't ride no trike

He rides a bike.

He ain't no tyke

That's why I like ike.

Olymp-sex

There has been a lot of sex going on at the Olympics. That's why I think sex should be an official Olympic sport. Participants would be judged like they are on diving, gymnastics, etc. Just imagine what a pick-up line that would be. "Hey baby, I got a gold medal in sex at the Olympics."

I'm movin' to the country, g onna eat me a lot of peachiz.

(in case you don't know what a peachiz is, it's a snack I made up that is chocolate covered cheez-its.)

Neener's recipe corner.

Today we'll tell you how to make peachiz. Here's what you'll need:

- A box of Cheez-Its
- A bottle of chocolate syrup.

Open the box of Cheez-its. Open the chocolate syrup. Squeeze the chocolate syrup onto the Cheez-its. Then eat the peachiz.

Neener's amazing facts.

For the longest time, I wondered what "BM" stood for. Then I read a book that said it stood for "butt mess." The book was called "the book of stupid facts that aren't true." See kids, it pays a lot to read a book. Reading is fun. Just don't read big belch news.

Neener's jokes

Q: What do you call... what?
What do you mean it'd be offensive?

An editorial.

I like mayonnaise. It tastes good.

I sent the aforementioned editorial to my local newspaper. I never got a response. They must be too impressed with my point of view that they decided not to contact me. They didn't even put it in the newspaper's editorial column. I guess they wanted to make the newspaper awards fair for all the other newspapers, which makes sense.

Here's a little ditty I wrote. I hope you like it.

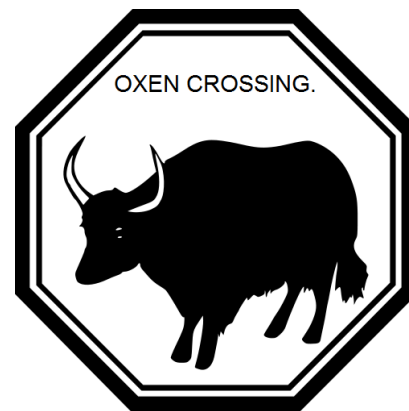

ditty.

One with the razzmatazz.

Well, we've reached the end of another issue of Big Belch News. What do you mean there's still one column left? I have to write a whole other column about stuff? I don't wanna!

And now, I will do something illegal. There. I did it. And I won't tell you what I just did because I don't want to get in trouble with the law. You know, the one that says "Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's oxen." Whoops.

I like coveting my neighbor's oxen. It's a healthy bodily function. My neighbor's oxen are so beautiful. They're just graceful creatures. I like the way they dance around my tongue. I mean the flavor of the oxen. I wish I had some oxen jerky.

Here's the big ending. I hope you like it.
