Hi, a very important person died. The world's oldest man ever died. He was living in Japan and he was 116 years old. I guess the Guinness Records people don't recognize the 2,000 year old man. Anyway, his secret to longevity was bacon. He ate bacon every day. Oh wait, that's MY secret to longevity. I eat bacon every day. I'm 30 years old so far and I don't see me dying anytime soon. I am going to beat that 116 year old man. Not physically, since I'd probably be in jail for abusing a dead corpse, which shouldn't be a crime at all since corpses are already dead. No, I'm going to live longer than him. I'm going to live to be 120. I wish I knew when I was going to die so I could start planning for my funeral. My funeral will be fun. Everyone would be dressed in black, not because I died, but because I worship the Devil. And they would read from the Satanic Bible. And then everyone would eat bacon, since that would be my secret to living to be 120.

My cat is annoying. She has been even more annoying now that I've been awake all day. She wants food. I hate it. Cats are stupid. In fact the whole idea of animals for companionship is a dumb idea. I want to go back in time and shoot the guy who first domesticated animals. Stupid moron hates me. Why do cats eat too much? It's not fair. I guess that's where they got the term "fat cats," is because mine eats too much. And they're loud because they meow horribly. It sounds really horrible. My cat is mean and hates me. At least dogs don't beg for food all the time like my cat does. Evil cats.

It was a cat that killed the world's oldest man. I think he died just because he was so tired of listening to a dumb cat meow because it wanted food. I think food is evil. I think cat food makers put chemicals in the cat food that makes the cat hungry. And then they get more money because owners have to get more food. Owners of a cat are dumb.

Well, the Salem-Keizer Volcanoes, our minor league baseball team, began their season yesterday. We had the honor of being the first team that the new Hillsboro Hops faced. They lost their first-ever game. We beat them 3-2. They used to be in some other northwest city, but since the Portland Beavers were pushed out of existence by the Portland Timbers soccer team, Hillsboro became the new town for a new minor league baseball team.

I need to poop. Oh wait, I just farted. I really need to go to the bathroom. I just came back from the bathroom. Boy did I poop a lot.

Summer is here. You know what that means. Tis the season to sweat profusely. It's hot in here. And it hurts to be hot. I don't know why men can walk around without a shirt on but women can't. Why are women's boobs considered private parts but men aren't? Especially really fat men whose boobs look like women's boobs. But no matter how fat guys are, they just don't make bras for men. And they should, because when I wear a T shirt, my nipples stick out. I think I gouged someone's eyes out with one of my nipples once. Must be because my nipples are as big as a baseball. I wish other parts of my body were as big as a baseball. Like my big toe. Why would I? I don't know. Baseball is a stupid sport.

You'd think those guys would get hot running around the bases and standing out in the field during summer. Why not just hold baseball in the winter? A little snow never hurt football players. It snows in Buffalo all the time practically and they have an NFL team with a stadium and everything. You'd think they would get hot standing out in the sun. I'm sitting in my house and I'm still way hot.

Two days ago was Flag Day. They celebrated it every year at school by running my shorts up the flag pole. Then they go home because summer break happens.
